Now come and square up your JOURNAL account.

It cost the county $30.05 to fix the jail where CASEROLD & Co. went out.

Several times on Saturday our neighbors observed to us, it is cold. Ugh!

The Naomi Brass Band was out in a sled, Thursday, discoursing music to our citizens.

The election for Directors of the Gallipolis, M. & C. R. R. Co., comes off in this city next Wednesday.

None of the fellows who broke jail recently have ever been returned. Only one in jail now, HUTCHINGS.

Coal has risen to ten cents, and is very scarce at the wharf. It is expected to be higher.

ROBINSON'S negro minstrels performed here last week. It is reported poor. A poor audience was present.

WHAT has become of the new trade silver dollar? Has the new greenback supplanted it? We pine for both.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday our young folks were out sleigh riding. Several of our country people came in on sleds.

Our citizens put in their idle moments discussing Louisiana affairs. They back Little Phil.

The only amusement on foot now is the Fireman's Dance, Feb. 22d. Charleston, Middleport and Ironton freemen are to be invited.

JOLLY & RICHARDS' string band furnished dancing tunes for the Pointers during the holiday balls at that place.

As much as seven inches in thickness has passed our city during the past week. Such congealed water is death on steamboat wheels.

In 1873 Judge KENT issued 256 marriage licenses. In 1874 he issued 313; an increase of 57. We rejoice with those that rejoice. Go to.

JAMES GOULD, the young man who decamped from Pt. Pleasant with his patrons property, was brought back from Pennsylvania last week and lodged in jail.

Our ice merchants have had all hands out during the past week putting up ice. Mayhap it will be the last chance.

THURSDAY S. A. NASH, Esq., as assignee of the LECLERCQ BROS., sold the Mason county, W. Va. farm belonging to them to Mr. HENRY P. ELIAS for $15,100. There are two hundred and eighty acres, and the appraisement was $17,000.

TIPPETT, of the Register, boasts that he flung his bargains at two dances, given at the Point, New Year's night. We are mystified. How could Tip get those feet in the same room, without crowding out his partner? Fugh!

An Egyptian ninety-five years old, five years of which have been spent in this country, is in this city. His wife, a young yellow girl, accompanies him. He is a distant relative to the fellow that Moses hid in the sand.

MR. JOHN DAGES, on Saturday afternoon, while passing down Second street, slipped and fell upon the pavement, fracturing one of the bones in his right forearm. Dr. NEWTON repaired the injury, and Mr. D. is going about.

MR. CHARLES CREUZET gave Judge HERARD a reception last Thursday evening. It was characterized by that large liberality which this gentleman is known to possess.

MR. JOHN DAGES carries an accident policy of $5,000. This gives him $25 per week during the disability caused by his broken arm.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the First National Bank occurred on Tuesday. No change was made in the official board. It could not be bettered.

We hear that Mr. E. BETZ, of our city, had four hundred bushels of apples frozen in his cellar, on Saturday night.

MR. JOHN DELILLE will start out next week with his lecture on an expose of Spiritualism. He has an extended trip laid out. The first place he will visit is Point Pleasant.

The light-hearted went down and danced on the Ohio No. 4, Saturday night, as she lies in her ice harbour at this place.

Whither are we drifting? Many of the JOURNAL readers, perhaps, are not aware of the rapidity with which our people are rushing into debt with an apparent total disregard of the manner, in many instances, in which they are going to get out of it. Daily applications for monetary favors on every corner, and the high rates of interest demanded and received are indications that defy contradiction, but they are not sure indexes of the extent.

We spent a few moments in the Recorder's office last week examining the mortgage records of this county, and found a steady increase in the number and size of mortgages given. Men who are supposed to be men of almost unlimited means are heavily mortgaged, and lesser lights are mortgaged for as small sums as $50. We give a few figures which we took from the record to show how these obligations are multiplying in our midst, which lead us to inquire, whither are we drifting?

In 1873 there were mortgages given upon real estate to secure $243,704.99, or nearly $700 per day. During the year $115,910.05 were released, leaving a balance of $127,794.94. In 1874 mortgages were given to secure $349,107.72, or over $900 per day. During the year $95,898.12 were released, leaving a balance of $253,209.60, or almost twice the amount of the preceding year, and leaving almost $10,000 more than the total given the preceding year. From these figures we have the fact that $105,393.73 more mortgage security was given in 1874 than in 1873, and that $20,921.93 less were released during 1874 than during 1873. These calculations are made from June of one year to June of the next year.

Since last June the patient has not improved. Each month shows a regular increase of mortgage indebtedness, except September, in which month several large mortgages were given in trust, swelling it (Sept.) beyond the usual increase. We give each month:

July	$8,532.00
August	9,880.27
September	27,447.83
October	18,080.53
November	19,895.00
December	26,406.04

Deducting the deeds of trust, above-mentioned, $9,500, made in September, the several months will stand as 8, 9, 17, 18, 19, 26, showing the unflinching increase, 'as in the last and the year before it.

We give these figures that our readers may think upon them, and not to show that business is on the decline. It is well, however, to remember that Debt and Danger are nearly synonymous, and Extravagance and Bankruptcy are twin sisters.

Commissioners in Session. The Board of County Commissioners, Messrs. NIDAY and MILLS, met in adjourned session, at the Auditor's office, on Thursday. The following business was transacted:

No remonstrances having been received against the location or building of a bridge across Big Kyger creek, it was ordered that notice be given that sealed proposals will be received at the Auditor's office until noon, Tuesday, March 3d, for building said bridge. Bidders may furnish plans and specifications; span 126 feet; one abutment about 20 feet high; the other about 7 feet high, and both will probably contain 162 perches. The bridge will be single track.

It was ordered that notice be given of the intention to sell the job of building a culvert and making a fill on the new alteration of the river road through Rothgeb's land, in Addison township, near David W. Berry's house, on the 20th inst., at 10 A. M. Also on the same day, at 10 A. M. the same day, at 10 A. M.

On motion the payment of $125 made to L. B. Prose upon Commissioner Niday's certificate, for building a bridge across Peter Cave creek, according to his contract, was confirmed, and $5 additional was allowed for anchoring said bridge. On motion the payment of $140 made to Scott & Kent, for building a bridge across Clay Lick, according to contract, was confirmed. On motion the payment of $325 made to Stephen Lambert, for building a bridge across Black Fork was confirmed.

The following bills were allowed: Joseph Hunt, fees in State cases and other fees, $356.20. J. H. Sprague, repairs to jail, $18.25. Mullineux, Lawson & Co., repairs to court room, $28.85. Kling, Shober & Co., repairs to jail, $11.80. Charles E. Fry, for making arrest, $10. Printing Company, $7. Total, $432.10.

Adjourned to Jan. 21, 1875.

MR. JOHN GIBSON, of Clay township, was 102 years old last Christmas, having been born Dec. 25th, 1772. He is still vigorous and healthy; reads without glasses, and does his own shaving. We suppose he is the oldest citizen of this county.

The dwelling house of Mr. SILAS NORTON, in Clay township, was destroyed by fire Tuesday night week. The family were absent at the time attending meeting at Ohio Chapel. Everything was consumed, building and contents. No insurance.

The editor of the Ironton Register attempts an explanation of his connection with the schedule of the over-land mail route between Ironton and Gallipolis. He is unfortunate in the facts. Capt. McQuinn's first schedule was Tuesday and Friday from Gallipolis, and Wednesday and Saturday from Ironton. Postmaster Newrox recommended Monday and Thursday from Gallipolis, and Tuesday and Friday from Ironton. Either of these schedules would have suited the people and the contractor. The present arrangement suits nobody at this end of the route except the editor of the Bulletin. The people and the contractor have to suffer for its accommodation. The contractor has been compelled to employ an assistant in order to fill the present schedule, and the people along the line are denied mail facilities for three days in the week, while if the week had been properly divided all these wrongs would have no existence.

Now, the question is, who is responsible for all this? We will not charge the editor of the Register with it, though he admits having a hand in the business. All we know bearing upon the question is, that the democratic editor here, and the editor of the Register corresponded in regard to arranging the schedule, and hence we infer that the present arrangement is their work.

To show that we have no selfish feeling in this matter—no interest in its settlement beyond that of the greatest good to the greatest number—we desire to say that we are willing to accept of Friday for our mail, only claiming that the alternate day of departure from here shall be fixed earlier in the week than Wednesday, that the interests of all—publishers, people and contractor—may be subserved.

The Bulletin, in speaking of the democratic organization of the Louisiana Legislature, says: "The roll was called, Wiltz received 55 votes, Hahn 2, and 1 blank. This is the only paper that has this news. There was no roll call. Gen. Sheridan relates the facts of the case in the following extract. They are confirmed by every witness present:

At 12 o'clock, Wm. Vigers, Clerk of the last House of Representatives, proceeded to call the roll, as according to law he was empowered to do. One hundred and twelve legally returned members answered to their names. Of this number, fifty-two were Republicans and fifty Democrats. Before entering the House, L. A. Wiltz had been selected in caucus as the Democratic nominee for Speaker, and Michael Hahn as the Republican nominee. Wiltz did not finish announcing the result when one of the members, (Billie, of Lafourche) nominated L. A. Wiltz for temporary Speaker. Vigers promptly declared the motion out of order at that time, when some one put the question, and amid cheers on the Democratic side of the House, Wiltz dashed on to the rostrum, pushed aside Vigers, seized the Speaker's chair and gavel, and declared himself Speaker.

Such statements as the above from the Bulletin are beneath the dignity of an editor, but may not be beneath that of a democratic Congressman elect.

River News. The river is falling with the channel full of floating ice. The last boat up was the Andes on Sunday morning, and she was forced to harbor in the mouth of Kanawha.

The Ohio No. 4, Wild Gazelle and Daniel Boone closely hug the bank here, waiting for a chance.

Capt. Bay's new boat, now ap proaching completion, it is thought will be the fastest boat in the up river trade.

The Government steamer Alice was forced to turn back at this point on Thursday. She located three lights below here, one at Straight's Rife, and two at Raccoon Island.

When the river clears she will finish the work.

The Telegraph, together with the tow-boat Ed. Hobbs, Pierrepont and James Gilmore, is lying in the mouth of Kanawha.

The St. James is at Cincinnati; the Julia No. 2 at Seaboardville; the Fannie Dugan at Portsmouth; the Chesapeake at Parkersburg, and the Emma Graham at Middleport.

Bishop Wilmer was called before the Congressional committee, at New Orleans, to testify in regard to affairs in Louisiana. This is a portion of his testimony: "I will freely confess that I am not in favor of universal suffrage." That, we apprehend, is the basis of all the trouble in the South. Take from the negro the right to vote and all things will be lovely.

Our fun lovers were disappointed by ALF BURNETT failing to appear on Tuesday evening. He telegraphed from Ironton that he could not make the connections. River traveling is uncertain now.

SUNDAY was the coldest day that has been known here for years. The thermometer in the morning indicated 16 degrees below zero.

At the Domino Dance we mentioned last week, given by Miss NERTIE FRANK, of our city, LEW MOORE and DAVE SCATTERDAY, Ohio No. 4 boys, were present, and speak in terms of the consideration received from Miss NERTIE and her mother.

The present cold weather is knocking into smithereens all our up and down river mail arrangements. We only get occasional stray mail from these directions.

The improvement committee was instructed to improve the sidewalk along Front street, between Grape and Vine.

JUDGE HERARD left on Friday to go upon the bench in Logan county, District Court opening there last Monday.

SOMEONE, on Sunday night, stole hams from the meat house of G. WASH. VIXEY, in the upper end of the city.

The benefit for the poor was well attended, Tuesday evening, at St. Joseph Hall. The ladies are to be commended for their efforts in so noble a cause.

This (Wednesday) morning the weather is softening, and an open river is confidently expected.

"TERTULIAN" next week.

A Word to Teachers. The Ohio Educational Monthly, published by E. E. White, at Columbus, is admitted to be one of the ablest Educational journals published in our country. Since it has absorbed "The National Normal" it has no competitor, occupying the same field in the State. Teachers cannot afford to do without it. The Editor relies upon the Friends of Education to sustain his valuable paper. Any Teacher or other person sending the undersigned his address and $1.35 will receive the Monthly for 1875. The extra 10 cents is to pre-pay postage. Educational Notes and Queries is a new paper just issued by our ex-Commissioner Mr. H. D. HENKLE. It is printed on book paper, gotten up in good style, and is designed, so says the editor, to answer those questions in pronunciation, grammar, theory and practice, etc., that perplex the teacher.

Any one, sending the undersigned $1 will receive Notes and Queries for 1875, postage pre-paid. J. S. WILSON.

GEN. SHERIDAN has given to the Secretary of War a full, concise and careful statement of the Louisiana affair. It is too lengthy for publication this week. It confirms the statements given elsewhere. The Cincinnati Gazette says of it: "It shows plainly that a conspiracy overthrew the law in order to seize the control of the House, and that there was not a single legal step in the whole procedure. It shows also that after this conspiracy had, through lawlessness, invested itself with the form of a legislative body, it had the effrontery and folly to call on the United States military to establish the control in the House. Yet these conspirators and their allies are telegraphing over the country their protests against military interference with their subversion of law."

"DEM" ATKINSON is in jail for breaking into the meat shop of the Messrs. HOLCOMBE. He entered Tuesday afternoon, while the proprietors were absent, and stole $4.30. He was seen at the work through the front window, immediately arrested, made to disgorge, and then handed over to Constable LANGLEY.

So FAR as the negro is concerned, the democratic policy in the South seems to be slavery or extermination.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says "it will not be politic for the Ohio Legislature to adjourn without effecting some modification of the Adair Liquor Law."

"In some rare spot where vulgar herbage grows,
If chance a violet rise its purple head,
Till some fairer flower moves it aside,
Till in full bloom it proudly to its mate
Sits in the midst of its sister buds,
Such was the fate, dear child, thy opening such
Pre-eminence in early bloom was shown,
For earth thy good, perhaps, and loved too much,
Heaven saw and early marked thee for its own."
